Confidentiality Agreement

The purpose of the Confidentiality Agreement is to establish standards of conduct for all volunteers of the Walla Walla Senior Center. Every volunteer has an ethical and legal responsibility to the Senior Center participants, the Senior Center programs, the community, and themselves, to treat client information as private. Personal client information should be treated in the same way you would protect your own personal information. Volunteers are expected to keep information and details about participants completely confidential.

By signing below, I agree to the following:

- Information and details about a participant are confidential and may only be discussed with appropriate staff members for agency business.
- No identifying information about the participant (e.g. names, addresses, etc.) will be revealed, except within the confines of agency business to the appropriate staff.
- Client records, files, lists, and route sheets, are confidential and should be protected from view of the public and should be used for agency purposes only.
- Discussing information about a participant outside of the agency environment is prohibited. Any and all information, even if the address, phone number, etc, are not revealed, could also be a breach of confidentiality.
- If information has been made public through any other source, that does not alter the fact that the participant has confidentiality privileges within the agency and you still must keep their information confidential.

By signing below, I agree that I will not:

- Accept or use a participant's money or property (i.e. share living expenses, accept gifts or tips, any joint purchasing, or enter into loan agreements.
- Purchase or sell any item, service, or property or anything else of value from/to program participants.
- Have financial or private interest direct or indirect, personally or through an immediate family member.
- Assume a role that directs the affairs of a participant in any way, including financial, health care, or living arrangements.

I, the undersigned, have read and understand the Volunteer Application and Confidentiality Agreement. I recognize that falsifying any information and/or failing to abide by the Confidentiality Agreement may subject me to civil liability under provisions of State law. I certify that all information I have provided on this application is accurate to the best of my knowledge. Media Opportunities: I understand that information and/or photos of my volunteer service may be used for media opportunities unless I indicate otherwise. Release of information: I understand that information provided on this form will only be disclosed for the purpose of volunteerism. Insurance: If I use my automobile in volunteer service, I certify that I carry and will keep in effect the automobile insurance equal to or greater than the minimum required by Washington State law. I understand that I am not an employee of the sponsor or the volunteer opportunity provider and agree to serve without compensation.
